

REGISTRATION FOR STRUCTURED LITERACY COURSE B BEGINNING DECODING AND ENCODING

Course Description

Course B* – Beginning Decoding and Encoding teaches how to systematically introduce the rules of English spelling in a structured, logical, cumulative way, so that reading, writing and spelling are taught simultaneously. Participants will learn practical VAK strategies and be walked through the scope and sequence of 30 lessons. Each lesson includes a phonemic awareness activity, single-word reading practise, sentences for reading and dictation, a decodable reading passage and an Interactive or Guided writing task. Upon completion of the course, attendees will be sent PDF's of all resources.

Attendees must have completed Structured Literacy Course A as a prerequisite for this course.

Please complete the form, sign and make a copy for yourself, before emailing to Rosemary.
